There are moments in life where we are invited to move beyond roles, masks and expectations... and reconnect with what is truly alive within us.

On October 4th, internationally renowned speaker, humanitarian and author Devi Mohan invites you into a powerful and heart-opening journey:

Where Joy & Vulnerability Meet

A day designed for both women and men to explore authentic connection, conscious living, inner strength and emotional openness — through movement, music, meditation, inspiring conversations, a live panel with authentic changemakers from the Netherlands, and shared presence

Together we create a space where vulnerability becomes strength, joy becomes medicine and true connection can arise.

💡 During this special day you will experience:

- * Inspirational talks by Devi Mohan
- * Conscious Dancing
- * Meditation
- * Organic vegan lunch
- * Live music & artistic performance
- * A meaningful panel about: Authenticity – Be You
- * A powerful technique to bring balance and harmony to the energy system
- * Connection, reflection and transformation
